HONDO LUNCHEON CLUB ORGANIZED.

At the regular weekly luncheon Tuesday what was formerly the Lion's Club organized a weekly luncheon club. The club will function pretty much as formerly but has severed its affiliation with the Lions and hereafter will be strictly local in all its relations.

A constitution and by-laws was adopted, the name "Hondo Luncheon Club" selected and a set of officers elected. Garland Martin was elected President, P. Jungman, Vice-President, and Henry Merriman, Secretary-Treasurer. The officers with four others constitute a Board of Directors.

Several new members have joined since the change in organization. It is hoped to secure many more members.

The Medina County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations is to meet in Dunlay, Saturday, February 27, 1932, at 2 P. M., in the Sons of Herman Hall. Every P. T. A. in the County and every teacher functioning in the schools of the County is urged to attend this meeting. In addition to an interesting program there will be a discussion of Parental and Home Education by Miss Celia Moore of the State Department of Health, Austin, Texas. The committee from Dunlay is composed of Mesdames Ad. Haby, Geo. Noonan, John Schweers, John Zuberbuehler and John Bohlen. Delegates appointed to the meeting from the Hondo Association are Mesdames Theo. Cameron, R. W. Speece, Elmer Leinwaber, Rollie Bless, R. Barkuloo, Ernest Britsch, P. C. Jagge, Jack Lacy, M. Mulcahy, Ben Oefinger, O. B. Taylor, and Joe Dillon.

Friends of our fellow-townsmen, W. F. Miller, will regret to learn that he lost his job with the water company Friday of last week. Mr. Miller has been employed at the pumping plant for a number of years and his work has been satisfactory. Unfortunately however, his crippled condition is such that the company, now a big corporation, could secure no employee's compensation insurance on him and could not retain him longer in their employment. Mr. Miller is moving back to his old homestead on the north side of town.

Tommy Taylor, local singer, was presented in one of his popular 15 minute radio broadcasts over KABC Texas Theatre Building, Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Tommy not only thrilled his listeners with his tenor voice but with his splendid whistling as well. His repertoire included "All of Me", "Just Friends", "Got No Honey", "Home" and "Too Late". Why not let your fans know when you are going to sing, Tommy?

Milton Haegelin was home from St. Mary's University for the weekend. He returned Monday to take part in the Washington Bi-centennial Musicales presented by the University Orchestra. Milton plays the clarinet in the orchestra. He was accompanied back to San Antonio by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Haegelin, who enjoyed the concert.

The baseball coaches of the East Zone of District 22 met at school house in Hondo Saturday and arranged the baseball schedule, which is given elsewhere in this issue. Hondo and Del Rio, of the East and West zones respectively, are favorites to win the title this year.

"MEDINA COUNTY FOR GARNER."

Medina County organized a "Medina County Garner for President Club" at an enthusiastic rally Friday night of last week at the Chamber of Commerce hall.

Pursuant to the published call, the mass-meeting organized by electing Judge H. E. Haass chairman and Fletcher Davis secretary. Judge Haass explained the purpose of the meeting to be to organize the voters of Hondo and Medina County in the interest of Judge Garner's candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President of the United States.

On motion of Judge D. H. Fly, a veteran supporter and long-time personal friend of Judge Garner, the name "Medina County Garner for President Club" was adopted.

On motion of L. E. Heath, it was ordered that the Chairman appoint a membership committee to prepare and circulate lists for the signatures of members of the club from the voters of the entire county. The Chairman took the appointment of the members of this committee under advisement, and since adjournment lists have been prepared and are now being circulated. Hunt one of them up, or secure a blank for your neighborhood from Chairman Haass, and sign up as a member. Let's make it 100 per cent strong among the Democrats of Medina County. The front row and as many following as needed will be reserved for any Republicans who want to get on the bandwagon!

After discussing plans for joining in the Garner rally at San Antonio Monday, February 22, and arranging for some "Medina County for Garner" auto stickers, the Club recessed subject to the call of the Chairman.

Medina County was well represented in the parade and at the rally at the San Antonio Municipal Auditorium Monday when one of the biggest political demonstrations ever made in Texas was staged. All parts of the state were represented and a permanent organization of the state was effected with Congressman Sam Rayburn as Chairman, assisted by a committee of the ablest politicians of the various sections of the state. Texas is for Garner!

GEORGE WASHINGTON STILL THE IDEAL AMERICAN

At the regular eleven o'clock Sunday morning service at the Hondo Baptist church last Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. R. W. Merrill, chose for his sermon topic the above theme.

Rev. Merrill spoke in part as follows:

Our government at Washington, through the Congress and chosen Committees are calling on the American people, to celebrate, for nine consecutive months from February to November the bi-centennial, or two hundredth anniversary, of the birth of George Washington, the first president of these United States. This unusual stress thus given to the history and personal character of the illustrious Washington is not primarily for the purpose of praising him, nor is it to indulge mere exultation on our part as Americans, however becoming such course might be, but, the aim is unspeakably higher, and is intended to be as broad as is the life of the American people. Its purpose is to bring an intimate knowledge of the character and deeds of this immortal citizen, afresh, to the American mind—especially to the minds of the millions of our growing youth, that we may embody, in our living, the enduring ideals which guided his life and glorified his name. For it was these ideals which contributed so largely to the strength and security of our government in its early history.

To dedicate this pulpit and this sacred hour to such noble and worthy purpose, affords your speaker full satisfaction, and I trust it meets your entire approval. We can not speak, at this time, of Washington's early life, spent amid the solitudes of Virginia mountains and forests. This would be both interesting and instructive. But, let it be said that he was blessed with a mother of remarkable wisdom and of the very highest character. This fact, doubtless, explains in no small measure the manifold strength of this most notable man. Indeed, the outlook for the youth, in every generation may usually be found in the character and ideals of the devoted mother. This worthy heritage, at least, is due every American boy. The tragedy of any land is found in neglected children.

Now let us think somewhat of the love which Washington bore his country. There was nothing in him akin to Alexander, or Caesar or Napoleon as a militarist. For manifestly, it was wicked and cruel personal ambition which moved these men. Selfish aggrandizement at the cost of blood, death and criminal waste, urged them on. Washington's sword was drawn only from patriotic impulse. He indulged no personal ambition, nor malice. His was wielded wholly in the interest of his country, which was dearer to him than life itself; it was sheathed without reproach.

Washington's devotion to his country's welfare is further shown by the unspeakable sufferings of a personal kind, which he willingly endured for it. No complete record has ever been made nor can be made of these bitter hardships. With his suffering soldiers, through severest winter and ice, poorly fed and poorly clothed, gave him untold sorrow; for his sympathies for his fellow men were deeply sincere. To this was added cruel and persistent criticisms on the part of ignorant and heartless persons, from whom he had a right to expect kinder consideration. No man, carrying responsibility, in trying times, however faithful and able he may be, is ever beyond the reach of the cruel, selfish critic. In the face of all this, Washington was unmoved in the constancy and effectiveness of his service to the people and land he loved. Again, his personal reverence for and obedience to the laws of the land was impressively characteristic of this ideal citizen. The big, the brave and worthy citizen is the one who is ever mindful of the elements which give strength and security to government. The man who knowingly violates the law can not be said to love the flag. He is a lurking enemy of his country. Just here it should be impressed upon our every heart, that unless responsible citizens everywhere, can become more respectful and observant of law, and more insistent upon universal observance of the same, our beloved country, even our own America, is doomed as an effective government, and it will fail to secure the property of its people. As a free people, we are only free to do right; as a liberty loving people, we can only exercise liberty within the law. In all things, he was the man for nations to trust, and whose example we can all afford to follow. As a commander-in-Chief of the Continental army, he served without pay; asking only that his personal expenses be cared for. This is indeed, patriotism. So, to his country and his times, he freely gave himself.

II.—Let us look at him, as a man of faith and hope. If there was any dark side to life, in his day, he did not seem to see it. In the darkest days, at Valley Forge, with his soldiers barefoot and poorly fed, he said: "Let us not despair; the game is yet in our own hands; to play it well is all we have to do". In a bi-centennial poem, recently published, Edwin Markham wrote of him:

"Where there was faltering, he was there as faith; Where there was weakness he was there as strength; Where there was discord, he was there as peace." This, my dear friends, indicates the marvelous fitness of Washington, to become the "father of his country". What a misfortune it is for any one to see only the "dark side of life".

JUDGE W. O. MURRAY

Candidate for Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, Fourth Supreme Judicial District.

Taken all together, life's outlook is bright at all times, especially, if we have the Presence and leadership of the God of all the truth. The world is ever engaged in a battle. We must contend with ignorance, vice, sin, poverty, prejudice; but for all this, we have our health, knowledge, patience, hearts to love God and men, hands to serve; high principles of right to inspire us, God's promises to cheer us; the needy about us to help, the lost whom we may endeavor to lead to Christ. Oh, so much to bless us every day. How bright is life, at all times, to those who are unselfish; who are willing and ready to serve the age in which we live. All of these fine things made up the soul of George Washington. Why should not we embody, in our daily living, the same indispensable qualities.

III.—Washington's fortitude, mingled with courage, commend themselves to us. He seemed to be a "stranger to fear". In one battle, it is said that four bullets passed through his coat and two horses were shot from under him. Taking it calmly, he remarked that it seemed that God was caring specially for his life. The victories of life all require sacrifice, suffering, pain, hardship. This is true today. The soldier spirit is the spirit which wins, in home life, in school life, in religious life, in social life—everywhere. My dear people, I beg you, never shrink from suffering, if the things worth-while are involved.

Must I be carried to the skies; on flowery beds of ease,

While others fought to win the prize, and sailed through bloody seas?

IV.—Finally, let us think somewhat of Washington's religious life. I feel that you will gladly hear about the religious life of this remarkable man. His early life, certainly, was under definite Christian influences. However, we know little of its manifestations, until he came into positions of responsibility. This is true in the life of very many serious minded folk. He was called to the Command of the Continental army, not on account of his religious character, nor on account of his aggressive spirit as a citizen; but it was due to his recognized, unimpeachable character. He could be trusted in all things, depended upon. He did not seek the position; it sought him. When it came, he felt it to be the call of God; that God, in His inscrutable providence, was laying His hand upon his talents, ability, for a high and sacred purpose. This sacred sense, my dear friends, is quite enough to steady and consecrate any of us. Upon taking command, he at once perceived the religious need of his men. Hence, he began to arrange for religious services in the army. He required his men to attend these services; his officers were to enforce his wishes in the matter. But, he set them the example, by attending himself; and participating in the worship of God. It was his faith and hope in divine help, which saved him from despair. If success attended him in battle, he attributed it to God's help. Looked at from the standpoint of the preacher, he was distinctly, the servant of God, no less than that of his country. It is not too much to say that if you are following any course, in connection with your fellows, unless you can feel that you are following the Lord's leadership, in business,

Young men or young women not employed should begin at once to qualify for a good secretarial or accounting position. There has been less than twenty-five per cent of the usual number of students getting training in the business schools of the country the past year. This means as business picks up there is going to be a shortage of well-trained office help.

Many of those let out during the past twelve months will have to take minor positions for lack of proper training. Many of them did not have a high school education and but little, if any, specialized business training. Competition is going to be close, margins of profit small, therefore the successful business man will have to employ those who whipped themselves with the most modern and up-to-the-minute business training. The time has passed when a smattering of bookkeeping, shorthand and type-writing will enable you to secure and hold the better positions. STANDARDIZATION MAKES MARKETING EASIER.

By L. A. Hawkins

Agricultural Extension Department International Harvester Company

When we learn to market profitably, the problem of production, to a large degree, will take care of itself.

A perfect and satisfactory marketing system cannot be worked out and put into effect in a week, or month, or a year. It may take several years but it will be well worth the time and effort expended.

The buying public recognizes now, more than ever before, standard products or brands and seems willing to pay the price.

Standardization, grading, growing, the same variety, use of established packages and adoption of trade names along with other features have made products of certain communities famous all over America. A nationwide market has been opened for such standardized products.

We must learn to standardize, and grade to meet the standards set, then we will not only broaden our market but will create a better market at home.

When all the farmers of a community raise the same breed of livestock, popular varieties of apples, potatoes, or other crops, or some one kind of product for which there is a desirable market, that community becomes noted for that one thing, and its products are in demand.

We must remember that uniformity of grade attracts big buyers. With standard products merchants can operate on a smaller margin. We should study the methods used in successful communities.

We need good roads so we can get our products to market after we have produced them.

Lack of an efficient marketing system means waste.

EUCALYPTUS MAKES RAPID GROWTH IN WINTER GARDEN.

Small 3-inch seedlings of Eucalyptus rudis (Desert Gum) set out on March 5, 1931, at the Winter Garden Experiment Station, are now over 10 feet in height. These plants are evergreen and may be propagated from seed or the seedlings purchased from nurserymen at a reasonable price. Eucalyptus is useful for wind-breaks to protect citrus groves and is promising as an ornamental.

In commissioner's Precinct No. 4, the Devine precinct, there was a gain of 66; the town of Devine gained 8; Natalia gained 70; Biry lost 13 and Black Creek 3. Haas gained 1. The rest of the county lost 16. Hondo lost 11 of these. Very few Mexicans ever pay in Devine or try to; paid 315, practically all white people. Hondo has 779.

WHEN FOOD SOURS

ABOUT two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drug store.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia, a superior tooth-paste that safeguards against acid-mouth.

TEXAS AND TEXANS.
By
Will H. Mayes
"All Texans for All Texas"

Optimism Prevails
There is a splendid spirit of optimism in Texas just now. The exuberant "hard times" that so many expected to prevail through the winter, failed to develop to the extent predicted. Suffering among the unfortunate has been little, if any, more than in previous years. Building and public improvements, especially in the winter, have been steadily increased. The winter has been mild and livestock on the range have thrived and fattened. There have been greater supplies in the pantries than ever before. The lands are in fine shape for crops. Business failures have been few. Banks that were closed because of panicky feelings of depression are nearly all reopened. There have been strengthened pecuniations. All foreseeing a prosperous year are anticipating a prosperous year free from the reckless speculation that has characterized the past few years. Prosperity is being reared on a solid foundation, slowly but surely. Texans have but little cause for complaint of the present, and little to fear from the future.

Bank Conditions Good
Bank failures this month throughout the country have been fewer than during the same length of time for the past several months. The banks are being reopened and new organizations are operating on more conservative lines—making a safer business. At Runge, Texas, and several other places where banks have been closed, the people have been celebrating with assurances of loyal support. Safe banking is essential to the community's development and the banks throughout the country have learned that safety is more essential than large profits for stockholders. Business in most lines is again on the upgrade. Prosperity is no longer out of sight—"just around the corner"; the public is now keeping step by her side.

Big Strawberry Patch.
To meet truck competition the Missouri-Pacific Railroad has volunteered to run a special strawberry train out of Carrizo Springs daily during the shipping season. The train will be loaded each afternoon and reach Dallas the next morning. The road will likely lose money on this train this season, but hopes its efforts will bring about largely increased shipments in future. Already the strawberry growers have planned to increase the 1932 crop to 1,000 acres. Hammond, La., is the only other point in this country with so large a strawberry acreage. Can your mind picture a strawberry patch 1,000 acres?

What is a "Deep Well"?
At Refugio, plans are being made to put down an oil well to a depth of 10,000 feet if that depth is required to get abundant oil. There are a number of Texas wells of 7,000 feet depth, and the big producers in West Texas are usually deeper than 4,500 feet. Geologists are agreed that beneath the shallow oil and gas pools of Texas there are stored far greater riches in oil and gas than Texas have yet dreamed. Some day these great pools will be developed and those with the foresight and business courage to bring forth this wealth will become rich beyond imagination. It is this dream of "buried treasure" that has made Texas so easily the victims of conscienceless exploiters. Some day oil development in Texas will be on as solid and certain a basis as any other business.

Poultry Theft Increases
Despite the fact that stealing poultry is now a felony and that the poultry thief who is caught is nearly certain to get the extreme penalty, poultry thefts have increased largely. Sheriff White of Travis county, recently said "it is more profitable than bootlegging and harder to combat." While it is a kind of prohibition that doesn't seem to prohibit as yet, the law against poultry stealing is not likely to be repealed, nor can any advocates of repeal be found among those who raise poultry.

Spirit of Patriotism.
Hardly a hamlet in this country is failing to observe the bi-centenary of Washington's birth with appropriate ceremonies that appeal to the patriotism of the people. The unanimity of the response has been surprising even to those who have sponsored the movement. It shows that where the right appeal is made to American patriotism the people respond. This is encouraging to advocates of a Texas Centennial celebration in 1936 to show Texas' appreciation of the heroic sacrifices that made possible this great State, and to mark the progress of the past 100 years.

Industrial Development
Every student of economic conditions agrees that the best prosperity of Texas can be brought about by development of its industrial resources. With the best climate in the world, with oil, gas and other fuels in greatest abundance, with soil resources almost beyond computation, with intelligent labor in abundance, with unlimited power harnessed for use, with water stored in plenty with all necessary shipping facilities, there is no reason why Texas should not become as noted for industry as it is for agriculture. It is also agreed that industry can thrive best in sections removed from large cities. There is hardly a town or community in Texas that could not successfully conduct one or more industrial enterprises if only the people would unite their efforts.

Mexico Builds Roads.
Mexico spent $7,500,000 in 1931 building the national highway to connect Laredo, Texas, with Mexico City. The road is now complete to Monterrey, and much of it beyond is paved and graveled. Beyond Monterrey travel is yet rather difficult, but Mexico is utilizing its cheap labor to extend the paving as rapidly as possible to Mexico City. When this road is completed much travel will be diverted to Mexico that has been going to European countries, and it will all pass through Texas. This is another reason for all Texas to begin getting ready for the 1936 Texas Centennial and for expecting the closest cooperation from the Mexican government.

Prospectors Coming.
Prospectors again are coming in numbers from the North, looking over Texas lands and buying. One land company recently brought 267 prospective purchasers to South Texas from New York and other Eastern States. Some 50 from Ohio constituted another group. Missouri and Indiana sent another party of about the same size. Numbers of these visitors are buying land, and many of them expect to return soon with their families. Every one who comes from the North becomes a good publicity representative for Texas. While land sales have not been as large as in the "boom days," enough trades are being made to show that business is getting back to the old basis.

Profits In Truck
Cabbage in the Valley has been selling as high as $22.50 a ton; carrots at $1.15 a crate. The Mission Enterprise says it costs no more than $5.00 a ton to grow cabbage and about 10 cents to grow a crate of carrots. Evidently there is a satisfactory profit in both crops.

Back To The Farm.
There were 208,000 more persons living on farms in America in 1931 than in 1903, according to report of the Secretary of Agriculture. Most of these were on small, one-man farms in close proximity to cities and towns. There is a growing desire to get away from the crowded cities and out into the open where at least a living may be made on a few acres of land.

Potato Planting.
Farmers around Eagle Lake are planting potatoes, nearly 4,000 acres of them. By getting into the markets early the growers expect to get better than average prices. There have been no killing frosts in that part of Texas this winter.

Displaying Flags.
Victoria has caught the prevalent patriotic feeling and the city has not only placed four sockets on each of the lighting standards, but has bought the flags to be placed in them on patriotic and festive occasions. Business men are also being induced to use flags for sidewalk decorations in front of their business places.

A GREEN POEM.
From The Owl.
A green little chemist
One beautiful day
Mixed up some green chemicals
In a green little way.
Then the green chemicals
Gave off a green smoke
And the green little chemist
Began to choke.
The green little grasses
Now tenderly wave
O'er the green little chemists'
Green little grave.

SOME PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

By Fred. W. Davis.
Congress has passed the $2,000,000,000.00 corporation act and placed it under the general supervision of Charles G. Dawes—a man of unquestioned ability.

Will this money get down to the relief of the average business man and industrial worker or will it merely replace some of the money lost by our banks and big industries on the stock exchange and investments in foreign worthless securities which the big international bankers unload on the American investors?

A certain amount of this money is designated for farm relief. Will it be used to extend payments to the farmers until times get better or will it merely bolster up farm loan bank stock, and foreclosures continue the same as ever?

It is claimed that at the close of the present fiscal year the government deficit will be around $4,000,000,000.00. The first half of this fiscal year showed an increase in government expenditures over the same period a year ago. Is there any hope of much reduction in expenses so long as the government continues to expand its activities in every conceivable direction?

If expenses are not materially reduced from what sources is the government going to secure funds? If they should be secured from sources which can be passed on to the general public what material relief would it give?

Within recent months a number of the very wealthy have passed on and several more are far down the western hills of life. Wouldn't an inheritance tax law which would leave the heirs to great fortunes only what they could reasonably use and let the rest escheat to the government as a public relief to the overburdened, shouting from one end of this republic to the other?

The great wealth possessed by a comparatively few people came, to a great extent, from the wonderful natural resources of this nation through the medium of special concessions made by the government. Why should we not make some "ends for wrongs committed by the government which has contributed so much to the unequal distribution of our wealth? Isn't the possession of this wealth protected by the very lives of all American citizens?

Isn't the "Divine Right" of wealth beyond all needs of its possessors worse than the "Divine Right" of Kings? Everybody knows that extreme wealth is dangerous to organized society because it dominates the economic and political activities of the nation and as a result the wealthy grow wealthier and the poor grow poorer—comparatively speaking.

What fairer way can this government secure and maintain an economic balance than by means of inheritance taxes—the one tax that can not be passed on to the general public. Sooner or later some equalization means will have to be adopted because the many will not forever permit the few to own practically all the wealth of the earth.

Speaking of the political influence of wealth wouldn't it create a stir if some man of moderate means were appointed to an important public position? Is all the executive ability of the nation possessed by a few ultra rich people? As an instance, couldn't there be found even one dirt farmer who is rooted to the soil, with sufficient ability to serve on the Federal Farm Board? If the entire board had been composed of alleged ignorant farmers could they have made a more dismal failure than the present members have?

The constitution of the United States gave to the Congress exclusive power to issue and control the value of money. There is a certain amount of new money being issued from time to time. The government backs each issue but if it gets any it must borrow it of the banks and pay interest. Do you believe any class of people should be given this special privilege? Do you believe the framers of the constitution ever contemplated that congress would surrender its authority over money? Were you a member of the Congress would you vote to continue this special privilege?

Speaking of bankers, the big ones I mean, it seems they have gathered unto themselves most of our own various bond issues which are gilt edge and unloaded on the buying public—their trusted clients—most of the worthless foreign securities—the bankers taking their millions as commissions. Should not such practice be so universally condemned that not even international bankers will ever be bold enough to again promulgate such transactions?

If press reports are correct as to this, don't you believe that if our international bankers were not so entrenched behind great wealth they would be prosecuted for swindling? Remember they had been sufficiently warned by the Secretary of State as to the unsoundness of these securities.

Are we worshippers of wealth or merely cringing slaves to its arrogant power?

THE MUMPS SONG.

From The Owl.
What is this thing called mumps.
This funny thing called mumps?
Oh, who can solve its mystery?
Why should it make a fool of me?
I took it then one terrible day.
It swelled my jaws and I couldn't say nay.
That's why I ask while I—
Am feeling my bumps—
What is this thing called mumps?
A Mumps Sufferer.

Buy a finely prepared tobacco dust containing at least 1.5 per cent nicotine and mix it at the rate of 2 per cent by weight. This destroys roundworms and small cecum worms and lessens the danger of infestation to young chicks and poulters next spring.

When TEETHING makes HIM FUSSY

One of the most important things you can do to make a teething baby comfortable is to see that little bowels do their work of carrying off waste matter promptly and regularly. For this nothing is better than Castoria, a pure vegetable preparation specially made for babies and children. Castoria acts so gently you can give it to young infants to relieve colic. Yet it is always effective, for older children, too. Remember, Castoria contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics—is absolutely harmless. When your baby is fretful with teething or a food upset, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Be sure you get genuine Castoria with the name:

MRS. CHRISTINE FASELER.

Mrs. Christine Faseler, nee Muennink, was born in Ost Friesland, Germany, Oct. 12, 1842. In 1856, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Friede Muennink, four sisters and a brother, she came to America and settled in the Quihi community. In 1858, she was married to Gerd Harms Faseler. They suffered the hardships of the early pioneers. Indian raids were frequent. The perils of the Civil War were severe and intolerable. It seemed as if starvation was inevitable at times, with short crops and no visible means of support; undaunted they continued on trying to eke out a livelihood in their newly adopted country rather than live in a crowded country where competition is keen and acquisition of property rather difficult.

This union was blessed with fourteen children, eleven of whom are still surviving, namely: Henry, Fritz, George, Herman, William and Louis Faseler, Mrs. C. J. Oefinger and Mrs. John G. Bohmfalk of Yancey, Mrs. Henry Kueck of Gonzales, Emil of Poteet and Mrs. W. N. Saathoff of Hondo. She has 62 living grandchildren and 45 great grandchildren; one brother, J. Muennink, Sr., and one sister, Mrs. J. H. Vordenbaum.

Since the death of her husband in 1912, she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. John G. Bohmfalk, where she continued to stay until her death Feb. 18, 1932. Her husband and three children preceded her in death.

Deceased was buried in the New Fountain cemetery under the auspices of the Methodist church with Rev. Shine of Yancey and Rev. Dechert of New Fountain officiating. A Christian mother, loved and respected by all who knew her, has gone to her reward.

PHILLIPS-MURRAY.

Miss Pauline Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murray of Hondo, became the bride of Earnest Phillips of San Antonio at a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of a large number of friends. Rev. A. M. Foster, pastor of the Methodist Church of vine, read the ceremony under archway twined with ivy and laurel with ferns and floor baskets of roses and purple irises and tied with white maline.

Preceding the ceremony Evelyn Barnes sang softly "Sweetest Story Ever Told", accompanied at the piano by Octavia Davis who played string music.

The bridal party descended twined stairway to the strains Lohengrin, in the following: Miss Agnes Phillips, sister of groom, maid of honor; Miss M. Martin, bridesmaid and then the bride. The bridesmaid was met by the foot of the stairs by Victor ray, groomsman and brother of bride. Miss Murray was met by father and on his arm took her under the arch where she was met by the groom and his best man, Oelfke of Houston. During the pressive ceremony "To A Wild Rose" was softly rendered on the piano.

The bride was lovely in a charming afternoon gown of electric chiffon and carried a Colonial bouquet of talisman roses and carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception of fifty guests was held. The bride's cake was a double tier white frosted confection in the shape of a heart and centered with a spray of orange blossoms. Mrs. F. H. Schweers presided at the coffee service. The table was laid with a lace cloth and center with a silver basket of white carnations. On each side white candles were burning in silver candelabra.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Phillips left by motor for Corpus Christi for a bridal trip. After their return they will be home in San Antonio. The bride wore a traveling coat of beige with a beige hat and matching accessories.

Mrs. Phillips is a graduate of Hondo High School and for the two years has been employed in San Antonio. Mr. Phillips, a native of Brownsville, resides in San Antonio where he has a position with a large San Antonio daily newspaper. The many friends wish them a happy and prosperous married life.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Phillips of Brownsville, parents of the groom, Misses Luella Dink, Ethel Frix, Lorene Lutz, Agnes Phillips and Marian Martin of San Antonio, Messrs. Paul Veder and Bob Hirtzel of San Antonio, and Floyd Oelfke of Houston, and a large number of friends from Hondo.

Miss Gertrude Umlang who had employment as dietitian at the Y. W. C. A., Ft. Worth, has been promoted as assistant manager of dietitian in Houston. Miss Umlang is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Umlang and was a graduate of the State University in 1931.—San Antonio Sentinel.

Mrs. Andrew Bless left Friday for Austin where she joined her brother, Mr. Reinhart Rothe, and wife and accompanied them to Throckmorton where they spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Davis.

FLU AND COLDS CAN BE PREVENTED NOW

RULES YOU SHOULD OBSERVE: Sleep 8 hours, with window open. Avoid crowds and persons with colds. Keep the bowels open.

The above rules are suggested by a prominent health authority, as guides to good health, and particularly should they be observed now, when influenza and bad colds are affecting so many people. Colds should be treated promptly, as they frequently lead to serious illness, and the wonderful and very penetrating salve—should be used at the first sign of a cold. Place a small quantity of it in the nostrils, and it will be carried at once to the seat of the trouble and may be effective in stopping bad colds. For Head Colds, Sore Throat & Hoarseness rub ABSORBO over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. It is important that the bowels be kept open and a cup of GRANDMA'S TEA will relieve intestinal congestion and eliminate the poison in the intestinal tract. If the cough is annoying, GRANDMA'S COUGH SYRUP, taken as directed, will give prompt relief.

NEW TRIAL FOR KEMPFF KILLER.

Austin, Feb. 24.—The Court of Criminal Appeals today reversed the death sentence imposed on John L. Green, negro, convicted in Medina county of the murder of Frank Kempf. The case was remanded to the lower court for a new trial.

Green was only 17 years old when tried and sentenced to death.

The death sentence was assessed on a plea of guilty. The appeals court held the trial judge erred in permitting the case to go to trial on a plea of guilty, especially in view of statements of Green that he had no intention of killing Kempf when he struck him with a piece of iron and his testimony that a confession obtained from him was not voluntary.

The indictment alleged Green and Ernest Johnson killed Kempf on June 15, 1931. Green was alleged to have used a piece of iron after Kempf and Johnson became embroiled in an argument at Kempf's house.

Green testified he went to Kempf's home with Johnson to borrow some money for another person.

The Jury might have assessed a lighter sentence had the facts in the case been properly presented on a plea of not guilty, the appeals court stated.—San Antonio Light.

SURPRISE PARTY AND SHOWER.

A pleasant surprise and shower were given Mrs. Alice Pearce and her husband, F. Holmes Pearce, last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred. W. Bohmfalk. The guests began to arrive about half past one, and after they had assembled and the first feeling of surprise was over, E. W. Jr. (Bill) and Gray Brucks, dressed up like George Washington and Mrs. Martha during Colonial times, dragged into the room a decorated wagonette piled high with beautiful and valuable presents for the bride and groom, who thereupon suffered a relapse in an aggravated form of the first surprise. The congratulations and good wishes of the assembled guests were beautifully expressed in a rhyme read by Mrs. McDade of San Antonio, after which the presents were opened and admired.

After a short time consumed in playing games and other pleasantries a plate lunch consisting of saltines, chicken salad, deviled eggs, mint, cakes and coffee was served to each guest and enjoyed by every one present. At about four-thirty the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pearce a long, happy married life.

The young couple had come to visit the "old folks at home", Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brucks. While here their friends sprung this surprise on them, for which they feel very grateful indeed, and say they will never forget it. They left the same night for their home in Dallas.

LADIE'S BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. L. E. Heath was hostess to the members of the Ladies Bridge Club, Thursday afternoon of last week, entertaining with a charming patriotic party. Tallies and score pads featured George and Martha Washington and their Mount Vernon home.

High score prize was won by Mrs. Horace Bradley and the cut for consolation prize was won by Mrs. Earl Starnes.

The hostess served a dainty luncheon course, consisting of salad molded in the form of a tree trunk in which a miniature hatchet was buried, saltines, cake and coffee.

Those present were Mesdames O. H. Miller, H. J. Meyer, Horace Bradley, F. H. Schweers, Ed. Convey, Felix Batot, Fletcher Davis, R. W. Speece, Earl Starnes, O. B. Taylor, W. H. Smith, W. O. Rothe, Miss Lillian Brucks and the hostess, Mrs. Heath.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

While driving along the highway about two miles west of town during the drizzly weather of Friday night of last week, in attempting to turn out for another car, Mr. Fred. Velasco lost control of his car on the slippery highway and turned over.

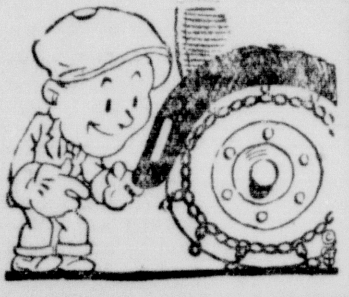

He was picked up and rushed to the Medina hospital here where he was attended by Dr. B. H. Carlton.

He was considerably bruised up over his body, suffered painful but not dangerous cuts about the head, face and arms and was suffering considerably from the shock. Fortunately, however, his injuries were not serious and his family came down from El Paso, where he lives and is engaged in the insurance business, and took him to his home Sunday.

Mr. Velasco is very grateful to those who befriended him during his helplessness and especially his physician and the nurses at the hospital.

GLEE CLUB PICTURE.

The Glee Club will make their next appearance at the Del Rio High School on February 26. They will be accompanied on the trip by their sponsors.

The P. T. A. recently voted to frame twelve pictures of George Washington, to be placed in the various school rooms. The pictures were presented to the school by the George Washington Bi-Centennial Commission, and are 22 by 30 inches. The first picture to be framed is hanging in the superintendent's office, and is a mighty pretty one.

"I wonder if my little boy knows how many seconds there are in a minute."

"Do you mean a real minute, mother, or one of those long wait-a-minutes?"

SCHOOL PATRIOTISM.

Just what is meant by "School patriotism?" School Patriotism means the same thing that national or state patriotism means. A patriotic citizen of America does not knock and find fault with America; instead, he boasts of it. And if it has weak qualities, he does his best to help make them strong. A patriotic student does the same for his school. A patriotic student is ambitious and he knows that a school is what the students make it. If a school is poor the fault is not the school's. Poor schools need ambitious students to make them good, but good schools need ambitious students to keep them good.

Now, all of us know that "Old Hondo High" is a good school. In fact one of the best of its size in this section of the state. Its accomplishments this term show that. But it will not be good if we do not continue working. We all want to be patriotic citizens, and a good way to do it is to be patriotic students.

Some new shrubs will make their appearance on the campus before long. Seven tall spruce to replace the ones that died will be placed around the auditorium. Some of the old plants will be moved to new locations, and we hope to have the "best-dressed campus" in the State of Texas. This work has been made possible by the P. T. A.

Lots of people would be millionaires but the alarm clock went off.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

From The Owl.

We as students are to prepare ourselves for some niche in the future. Some of us have already had our way pointed out to us while others are blazing their own trail. These people will drive forward until they reach their goal and then settle down to broaden and expand this niche. Associating with this type of prospects, we find the never-do-well. This fellow will drift over the sea of opportunity, touching here and there, adding nothing to the general welfare. He lives only for the moment, sustained to a great extent upon his own egotism and an innate optimism as to his own importance in the future. Between the future leaders of society and the do-nothing lies a field populated by a class that does not understand itself and is misunderstood by others. Here we find the dissatisfied mind; the constantly seeking mind. It is neither brilliant nor dull; the person is not shiftless nor is he particularly aggressive. What has this person to look forward to? Is it possible, under the existing order of things, to create an interest for him without killing something in him or would it be better if he were broken and molded according to a conventional type? This boy, or girl for that matter, might settle of his own volition and be contented for a time. There is always the possibility however, of his overhearing the wrong word or an alien action which would again make him a mere atom of flotsam in the flood of discontent and quest. His high ideals alienate him from the realities of life and he becomes a citizen of Utopia. Utopia is not far removed from radicalism or anarchism. He will drift along, constantly making unfavorable comparisons between realities and his ideals. No one can consciously help the boy. His ailment is of the mind. He will follow the dictates of this mind which will lead him into many things, some good and some bad. Perhaps he will finally build a miniature Utopia of his own and perhaps he will merely "pass through." He will at times be called a loafer and never-do-well and at times he will be called brilliant. He will always be known as undependable and at no time can he be entirely depended upon.

"EGO."

From The Owl.
Why do I laugh?
Why do I weep?
Why do I sigh?
Why can't I sleep?
What am I losing?
What can I give?
I want to die;
I must live.
Why can't I have friends?
I have no foe.
Oh! isn't there anyone
Who cares to know?

Deep down inside—very low,
I hear a little voice saying "Ego".

A complicated traffic tangle was caused recently by a lady motorist who signaled that she was about to turn to the right and did so.

"Pa" said little Peter, "What becomes of a football player when his eyesight begins to fail?"

"They make a referee out of him!" growled his dad.

GEORGE WASHINGTON STILL THE IDEAL AMERICAN.

professional or social life, you should turn from such course, without delay. When Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown, in 1781, Washington returned to his home and family, and was a regular attendant upon the worship of his church, being an official therein.

Now, my dear friends, there is for the 1932 American the possibility of attaining to a spiritual equivalent, each in his own measure, to that which gave strength and worth to George Washington and all other great Americans, in the contemplation of whose lives and service, men are wooed to higher things. Primarily, it is to be found in that reverence and unselfishness and patriotism and sense of dependence upon Almighty God which fashioned the towering and rugged character of George Washington.

QUIHI NOTES.

The son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many." Matt. 20, 28.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock divine service will be held in St. John's Lutheran church at New Fountain. A cordial invitation to come to this and all services in this church is extended to all.

Regular weekly Lenten services are held every Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock in Bethlehem Lutheran church. The deeply interesting theme of these Lenten services is the sufferings and death of Christ. A cordial invitation to come to these services is extended to all.

Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock a splendid Luther League Program will be given at Bethlehem Lutheran church. The bi-centennial of George Washington's birth at Wakefield in Virginia will be remembered in patriotic selection by the trained Quihi church choir, select readings and in an address by Rev. W. C. Liebfarth of Hondo. In short, the program promises to be very interesting. All are cordially invited. So come with your friends and neighbors.

Because of bad weather and road conditions the usual services at Bethlehem Lutheran church and the announced interesting Luther League program were postponed to the coming Sunday.

SINGLE COMB R. I. REDS.

Why send to another state for eggs and chicks when we have just as good at home? Come and see my pens, it isn't far and a good road and very reasonable. Better chickens for less money. BRUCE PHILLIPS, Box 12, Jourdanton, Texas.

MRS. JOHANNA M. ZUERCHER.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hubert Zuercher, who died at her residence here early Saturday, February 20, 1932, were held at 9:30 A. M. Monday, February 22, 1932 in Castroville from the St. Louis Catholic Church, with Rev. Jacob Lenzen officiating. Interment was made in the St. Louis cemetery.

Johanna M. Zuercher, nee Conrad, was a member of one of the old pioneer families. She was born January 3, 1864, and was married to Mr. Hubert Zuercher on April 21, 1885. Deceased was 68 years of age when death claimed her; she had been ill for some time. Surviving her are her husband, Hubert Zuercher, three brothers, Hubert and William Conrad of San Antonio, and Jacob Conrad of Devine; four sisters, Mrs. Lawrence Rihn, Mrs. Jacob Rihn and Mrs. Louis Mangold of Castroville, and Mrs. Frank Keller of LaCoste.

A loving faithful wife and a kind and loyal neighbor has gone to her last reward. She leaves many who are near and dear to mourn her passing. This paper joins their many friends in extending sympathy to the grief-stricken ones in their bereavement. May she rest in peace.
